

Report : WHO Day “ Depression let’s talk” – Panel Discussion

07th April 2017

The Department of Public Health Dentistry had organized a panel discussion on the eve of WHO day “ Depression let’s talk” on 7/4/2017(Friday) at MBA Auditorium Hall, from 10:00 AM to 1:30 PM.

The Programme was inaugurated by the Incharge Provost SPU and Dean NPDCH, Dr. J.R. Patel. The other Dignitaries were Dr. Tejas patel (MD, phsychiatry), Dr. Shekar Sharma (Ayurvedic psychiatry) Mr. Biswajit bey Pshychological consultant, Mrs. Smita patel (Art of living), Registrar of SPU, DR. Parimal Trivedi, Prof & Head, Dept of PHD, Dr.Venugopal Reddy.

A total of 177 students (Dental – 77, Physiotherapy- 23, Nursing – 77 and one from education S.T.T college) teaching staffs of both dental and nursing staffs witnessed the programme. There were motivational speeches by the dignitaries.

The programme was addressed by Dr. J.R Patel with best wishes, followed by panel discussion moderated by Dr. Venugopal Reddy with the four different specialist in their respective field. The panel discussion was held for a period of one and half hour, and there was a good participation from the participants end.

A good hospitality was provided to the participants in the form of tea and snacks was The programme was well appreciated by the Provost SPU.

